活動的改善建議／發展空間

Suggested Improvement / Room for Development

The activity is scheduled for January, when temperatures are relatively cold. Many animals, such as crocodiles, turtles, and water monitor lizards are likely to be hidden. Additionally, on the day of the activity, there was significant fog and humidity, making the paths throughout the park quite slippery. Given that the attractions are widely distributed and students must navigate numerous stairs and slopes, it is recommended to schedule future visits in the autumn (around November to December) for a more ideal experience.
